

Alinma Bank Accelerates Speed and Convenience of Customer Experience with IBM AI-powered Cloud Suite

Alinma Bank reimagines the customer journey with powerful automation solutions and a hybrid cloud strategy

Riyadh, Saudi Arabia, 28 February 2024: Alinma Bank, a leading bank in Saudi Arabia, selected IBM to launch a comprehensive suite of modern banking applications, offering the bank a new platform to provide their customers greater access to a range of cutting-edge digital solutions and enhance the bank's digital transformation efforts.

The new platform connects existing systems with new offerings using advanced AI and IBM's hybrid cloud approach to deliver seamless integration. It also includes IBM Cloud Pak® for Integration built on Red Hat OpenShift and IBM API Connect®, which allows the bank to manage and secure proprietary application programming interfaces (APIs) – the building blocks of modern digital experiences.

"IBM's expertise in cutting-edge technology was a key factor in our decision," said Yasser AlOufi, CIO of Alinma Bank. "We're committed to continuous improvement, and collaborating with IBM will help us achieve our ambitious goals."

"Our success is measured by our ability to enhance our clients' business, making them faster, reliable, productive, and secure," said Fahad Alanazi, General Manager, IBM Saudi Arabia. "Our work with Alinma Bank solidifies our commitment to serve as a partner to the Kingdom's success in-line with Vision 2030. We aim to play a leading role in driving the country's digital transformation, empowering our clients and partners to improve the quality of their products and services and fulfil their full potential."

Designed to drive digital transformation, IBM technology will provide Alinma with enhanced capabilities in building user-friendly, innovative, banking apps for Saudi consumers, resulting in faster delivery, improved security, and best-in-class convenience for bank customers. This tightly aligns with Alinma Bank's Strategy 2025 initiative, which focuses on exceeding customer expectations. Additionally, IBM's integration technology supported Alinma Bank to develop its own API management platform which enables the bank to centralize control over its API integrations, while meeting high performance and security standards.
